Does she want to talk to me?

Image taken on 2006-06-24 16:26:26 by familymwr.

I keep having dreams of talking to my ex-best friend Sadey. We haven't talked for a long while. On my recent dream, I found her in my friends house. She invited a few people to see her new home which was a theatre with furniture. There I found Sadey and her new friend. She began talking to me and on one part when I went to the restroom. I hear her say 'its cause i dont want her to be alone'. What do my dreams with Sadey mean???
