Help! I just want a 2.1 home theater system?

Image taken on 2007-12-07 16:31:38 by familymwr.

I am not big in surround sound. Don't care for the clutter or messing up the look of my interior. However, I do want a strong stereo system with a subwoofer to go with my Xbox 360 and flat TV. I want to use this pair of speakers...

However, I am confused?! Do I need a home receiver to use these? How do I add a subwoofer?

Will these work out of the box or do I need additional things?
