Image taken on 2010-04-24 13:08:24 by Ed Yourdon.

So, my dad was talking with my mom, Saying he was in the one who came up with the idea to have a home theater in our house, My mom asked me if I remembered shopping for furniture, I hate causing a stir, I just said "I remember going to a store" than my dad asked me if I heard him say anything about his dream about the home theater, I said yes.. and later on my mom says "Stay the hell out of my conversation"

No, hardly actually
